

An Unforgettable Accident

Last week, Jonas had an accident. That morning, Jonas woke up late because he had forgotten to set the alarm the night before. At eight o'clock in the morning, when he awoke and looked at the clock, he was extremely shocked. Meanwhile, his mum ran to him quickly and shouted, "Quick! You will be late for school!" Jonas skipped his breakfast and ran out of his home as fast as a cheetah.

Misery always loves company! When he ran to the lift, he was so surprised that it was out of order. At that moment, he had no ideas. Suddenly, he saw the staircase nearby so he ran downstairs in a hurry. After a while, he reached the ground floor. Then he left the building as fast as he could. He crossed the road quickly without noticing the red pedestrian light was on! At the same time, a car was moving towards him. Even worse, the driver had his head in the clouds because he was playing with his phone while he was driving. All of a sudden, Jonas was knocked down by the car and his leg was injured. He felt very painful because his leg might have been broken. A few seconds later, he lost his consciousness. When the driver heard a loud noise, he noticed that he had hit somebody. He was scared and got off his car. He cried to Jonas loudly, "Hello! Are you okay?" He found that Jonas was in a coma. Then he called an ambulance quickly. After a few moments, some paramedical staff arrived and sent Jonas to the hospital.

Fortunately, Jonas awoke after a surgery. However, he still had to stay in the hospital for one more week because he needed to receive treatment for his leg. After this accident, he understood not only why he should pay attention to the traffic rules, but also what "Health is Wealth" really meant.

Kwok Pak Kiu, Aaden 5B (13)

