

Leung Yuet Sik, Riley (12)

It is three o'clock in the afternoon. Roy is in his bedroom and he feels bored. He asks his mum if he can watch TV. His mum says okay.

When he is watching TV, his little brother Anderson jumps out and pulls a face in front of him. He feels angry because Anderson blocks the TV in front of him.

Roy chases his little brother at once. Both of them feel angry and mad with each other. All of a sudden, they start fighting in the living room.

Mum sees what is happening so she screams at them in her peak tone. Both of them stop at once and stare at each other. Mum is so angry and asks what is happening. Both of them blame at each other and it makes Mum very angry again.

Mum orders them to stop talking and stand beside her. Both of them calm themselves down while standing next to Mum. They promise Mum not to fight again.
