

Cheating in class

2nd October, 2023

Cold

Today my teacher Miss Wong caught my classmate cheating in class. We had an English test. We were very nervous, but we still needed to do the test.

Miss Wong knew Benny cheated so he shouted at Benny. Benny always looked at the palm to read the note. Benny stood up and told his teacher why he cheated. He said his mother was in the hospital.

Miss Wong called Benny's mum and told her Benny cheated. Benny's mum came to school. When she saw Benny, she said to the teacher, 'When Benny goes home, I will talk to him!' Benny was punished by his mum so he would not do it again. I learnt we must not cheat and lie to anyone.
