

My Trip to Busan

By Yu Ka Ki, Kit

In summer holidays, my family and I went sightseeing in Busan, Korea. I got a painful experience during my trip.

On the first day, we went to Headong Yonggungsa Temple which is located near the sea. We visited the fascinating temple and looked at the beautiful sea view there. The scenery of Headong Yonggungsa Temple was engrossing.

At lunch, I went to a restaurant which was famous for its seafood stew. I was very hungry and I couldn't wait for it. I ate some octopuses, shrimps, crabs and clams with my family. The seafood was delicious. I was really full after finishing the stew.

Suddenly, I had a stomachache so I ran to the toilet immediately. I vomited seriously. I felt dizzy and my stomach was in pain. Later, my mum and dad took me to the hospital.

In the hospital, the doctor said I had got food poisoning but luckily it was not serious. He gave me some medicine and asked me to take a rest for a few days. Therefore, I needed to stay in the hotel and could not enjoy the trip. After this incident, I learnt that I should eat cautiously in the future.
