

My Smart Mum

Last Sunday, Mum, my little brother, Peter and I stayed at home. While Mum was cooking dinner in the kitchen, I was drawing a family picture in the sitting room.

Suddenly, Peter took my colour pencil to draw on the wall while I was sketching the drawing. When I turned to him, I saw him drawing on the wall. I shouted at him like thunder. I stopped him at once because I was worried that Mum would be angry.

Immediately, I used an eraser to clean the wall but it was not successful. Peter was very scared and started to cry. When Mum heard Peter cry, she came out of the kitchen. When she saw what had happened, she was calm and had a smart idea.

In the end, Mum taught me and Peter to draw many beautiful flowers on the wall. It was amazing! It looked like a garden. We were relieved. What a smart Mum! What a wonderful and exciting day!